Linxan was a town located in the north of Kaedwen which became one of the capitals of the kingdom during the so-called War of the Two Unicorns. A local folk legend has it that the city was defended in November 1350 by the three witchers known as Adalwulf of Aedirn, Cervin and Putnam Pitch and by the sorress Anika Marsir of later fame, from the remnants of the Haaki Invasion who had turned to bandits and raiders being the first major alliance between schools for several centuries (not counting the Invasion) but it is a legend, and its veracity has not been verified.
